MAYHAM FAMILY REUNION

The members of the Mayham family who attended the annual family reunion held at Jefferson, Schoharie County, New York, on August 19, 1937, will always remember that event as a very enjoyable and interesting occasion, and it was very gratifying to the members of the committee to note the increasing interest on the part of the members of every branch of the family, as was evidenced by the fact that of the nine children of Henry Maham who are known to have had descendants, seven were represented by descendants at the reunion and descendants of the other two were heard from at that time.

Following lunch at the Jefferson Community Hall, a very interesting family meeting was held, at which George W. Veley and Milo H. Mayham, the two surviving grandchildren of Henry Maham, were introduced, and the representatives of each branch of the family present were called upon to rise and be introduced and counted. Mrs. Grace Raymond, the historian of the committee, outlined her work in collecting historical and genealogical information in regard to the family and gave a very interesting account of the family history from the time Henry Maham settled on Blenheim Hill and founded the Mayham family of New York State. A very notable feature of the reunion was the strong feeling of family loyalty and friendship which prevailed on every hand.

It was the unanimous opinion of those present that these reunions should be held every year during the third week in August, and the committee will make arrangements to hold the 1938 reunion during that time, notices of which will be sent to all of the members of the family. The committee urges the members of the family to attend, as we feel that these reunions will result in establishing closer family relationships and an increased appreciation of the value of membership in a pioneer American family which took an active part in the early development of this country and has furnished many useful and outstanding citizens, and will also afford the members of the family an opportunity to enjoy and be inspired by the unusual natural beauty of the locality where the Mayham family originated.

In connection with this report, the committee takes pleasure in presenting a Mayham Family Directory, which gives the names and addresses of the 421 present members of the family of which we have a record, together with their lines of descent from Henry Maham. This directory has been compiled from the extensive historical and genealogical information which it is hoped to complete in time to be issued at the next reunion. Mrs. Raymond, the family historian, has had great difficulty in obtaining early information in regard to Henry Maham, due to the lack of available records covering that period, but it is known that he settled on Blenheim Hill, Town of Blenheim, Schoharie County, New York, sometime during the decade previous to 1800. Henry Maham died in 1843 and the stone at his grave at South Jefferson, N. Y., adjacent to Blenheim Hill, states that he was 91 years old at the time of his death. It is uncertain as to the number of times Henry Maham was married, but it is known that he married Catharine Mac Glothlin, mother of the first ten of the thirteen children of whom we have a record, about 1788, when he was about 36 years of age and she was about 17, and thirteen years after her death, which occurred in 1810, he married Sally (Blass) Rockefeller, widow of Johannes D. Rockefeller, in 1823. No records are available as to the period between the death of Catharine and his marriage to Sally, and it is not known whether he was married previous to his marriage to Catharine. Both Catherine and Sally are buried at South Jefferson, N. Y.

An attempt has been made to make the directory as complete and correct as possible, but in a number of cases where information could not be obtained, or the historian could not be assured of the accuracy of the information furnished, it has been necessary to leave blank spaces, and it is probable that names which ought to have been included have been omitted and that it contains errors in names, addresses and family lines, and one of the purposes in issuing the directory at this time is to enlist the cooperation of the members of the family in correcting errors and obtaining additional information for the historical and genealogical record which is to be issued later.

Wishing all the members of the Mayham family a Happy New Year, and hoping to see you at the next reunion,

Sincerely yours,

Milo H. Mayham, Chairman, Jefferson, N. Y.
Adaline A. (Dyer) Fuller, Jefferson, N. Y.
Julia Mayham Morehouse, 21 Elm St., Cobleskill, N. Y.
Alice Marie (Mayham) Cowan, 9 North Lane, Glen Cove, N. Y.
Eva Grace Mayham (Goodenough) Raymond, Historian
23 Revere St., Lexington, Mass.

MAYHAM FAMILY DIRECTORY

The living descendants of the children of Henry Maham are listed as follows:

	Pages
William and Abigail (Howard) Maham	3 - 4
William and Susan (Maham) Hetherington	5 - 6
John and Betsey Peaslee (Ferguson) Mayham	7 - 10
Henry and Eliza (Frink) Maham	11 - 13
Stephen and Catherine (Van Deusen) Maham	14 - 15
Cornelius and Julia Ann (Reynolds) Maham	16 - 21
James and Catherine (Lee) Mayham	22
Charles and Ellen (Wood) Mayham	23
James and Sally Ann (Maham) Veley	24

The present members of the family are listed on the left in the pages of the Directory and the family line is shown on the right. Numbers refer to generations and lines can be traced by beginning with the names of the present members of the family and following back through the next lowest numbers on the family line to 1 Henry Maham.

The information contained in this Directory has been collected by the Family Historian, Mrs. Percy E. Raymond, of 23 Revere St., Lexington, Mass. Please go over the Directory carefully, particularly that part of it which relates to your immediate family, and notify Mrs. Raymond at once of any omissions or corrections, however slight, also of any additional information relating to the Mayham family which you may have. As the Committee desires to always keep the family records up-to-date, Mrs. Raymond should also be promptly notified of all marriages, births, deaths and changes of address of members of the family. Your cooperation in this matter will be greatly appreciated.
